

“Seeing a dentist as an adolescent can change the rest of your life. Patients who seek out care in their teens can avoid problems like losing teeth or gum disease which impacts their health, school, and careers”

Dr. Garrity, Dentist

39%

of adolescents ages 12-19 have untreated tooth decay

1 in 5

young adults reduce participation in social activities due to the condition of their mouth and teeth

Untreated Cavities

can cause pain, poor appearance of teeth, and difficulty concentrating

Ask us about free or low-cost dental resources in our area